(see attached map for locations)

The complexes in the table are generally listed in order of affordability. Each has different rent levels and income eligibility requirements that vary according to the method by which the development was originally financed (i.e., federal, state, local, or private funding). Kottinger Place and Ridge View Commons are administered by a management company employed by the City of Pleasanton. The other complexes are privately owned, and rents and income eligibility levels are regulated through federal requirements or City-Owner agreements. Rent levels are subject to periodic change and should be confirmed with the on-site management.

With the exception of #7, all of the complexes listed in the preceding table are for "independent living" and generally do not include services such as meals, housekeeping, or personal care. Because these units are often significantly below local market rents, leasing is highly competitive and eligible applicants must often wait a year or more for an available apartment. Leasing for all of these complexes is handled directly by each property manager. Telephone numbers for the leasing offices are listed in the table shown above.

Other Affordable Rental Opportunities (Non-Age-Restricted)

The City has encouraged the construction of affordable rental housing by allowing special consideration for projects which provide units at below-market rent levels. Four of the largest apartment complexes in Pleasanton include some units in which rents are slightly lower than market rents due to a regulatory agreement between the City and the apartment owner. Information on these below-market rent apartments (which are not age-restricted) may be obtained by contacting the City's Housing Division at 925-931-5007.

The Housing Authority of the County of Alameda (HACA) can provide information on housing opportunities involving federal and/or state assistance (such as Section 8 rental assistance) in Pleasanton and elsewhere in Alameda County. The HACA office is located at 22941 Atherton Street, Hayward, CA 94541-6633 (510-538-8876; www.haca.net).

Senior Care Facilities

For seniors who need assistance with activities of daily living, there are several assisted living, skilled nursing facilities and state-certified board and care facilities located in Pleasanton and the surrounding area. The Senior Support Program of the Tri-Valley (925-931-5379) can provide information and referrals to local facilities. Information on state-certified board and care facilities can be obtained from the State Community Care Licensing Division (510-286-4201; www.cclcd.ca.gov). Larger facilities that are located in Pleasanton are listed below:

Eden Villa	4115 Mohr Ave.	925-461-8409	Assisted Living
The Parkview	100 Valley Ave.	925-461-3042	Assisted Living / Memory Care
Pleasanton Nursing and Rehabilitation Center	300 Neal St.	925-462-2400	Skilled Nursing (24-hour care)
Sunol Creek Memory Care	5980 Sunol Blvd.	925-846-8283	Memory Care

The Parkview (#7 in the preceding table), includes 31 units reserved for very low income seniors at reduced rents and service costs. Leasing information can be obtained by calling the office.

Ownership Housing for Seniors

At the present time, there are two mobile home parks in Pleasanton in which residency is limited to adults aged 55 and older and where residents generally own their own mobile or modular homes. These parks are Vineyard Mobile Villas (3263 Vineyard Avenue; 925-846-5336) and Hacienda Mobile Home Park (3231 Vineyard Avenue; 925-846-1527). In addition, there are two new communities that include ownership housing for seniors:

Stoneridge Creek (east Stoneridge Dr.); 800-849-0023; www.stoneridgecreek.com

The Village at Ironwood (Ironwood Dr.); 925-460-8900; www.ponderosahomes.com/village

Information on housing opportunities in these areas may be obtained by calling each development directly.

KOTTINGER PLACE

240 Kottinger Drive
Pleasanton, CA 94566
tel. 925-846-0133

Kottinger Place is a 50-unit rental housing complex primarily for very-low-income seniors aged 62 and older. The complex is a U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Public Housing development and is sponsored by the Pleasanton Housing Authority.

The complex, located at 240 Kottinger Drive in Pleasanton, was built in the early 1970's. The project includes 50 one-story, attached cottages located on a three-acre site. The property is pleasantly landscaped with many mature trees and is immediately adjacent to Kottinger Park, a City park facility. At the center of the site lies the community building complex which houses the office, community room, kitchen, laundry room, and other common facilities. The complex features 32 studio apartments, 16 one-bedroom units, and 2 two-bedroom units. The average unit size is approximately 700 square feet.

Kottinger Place residents currently range in age from 62 to the mid-90's, and the average age is approximately 80. Roughly 80 percent of the residents are female. Two apartments are occupied by the resident manager and on-site maintenance person. The Housing Authority contracts with Barcelon Associates to provide property management services at Kottinger Place.

In order to be eligible to reside at Kottinger Place, residents' income cannot exceed the "very low income" limits set by HUD (i.e., 50% or less of the Area Median Income). Rent levels are based generally on 30% of the individual resident's monthly income pursuant to HUD Public Housing guidelines. Because of Kottinger Place's favorable rents in an environment of high local housing costs, there is always a high level of interest among prospective renters. The waiting list is currently estimated to be several years long. The list is generally updated annually and new applications are accepted when the list is open (contact the site directly for information on the availability of applications). Priority is given to Pleasanton residents.

With its limited rental income, Kottinger Place operates on a limited budget. In order to keep the complex attractive and in good repair, the City of Pleasanton has provided assistance over the years through allocations of City Lower Income Housing Funds and federal Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds. These funds have been used to implement various rehabilitation projects, including roof replacement, painting, and other interior and exterior improvements. The complex recently began receiving federal Capital Grant funds from HUD to implement various physical improvements to the complex.

Further information on Kottinger Place may be obtained by calling the office at 925-846-0133.

STANLEY JUNCTION APARTMENTS
4031 Stanley Blvd.
Pleasanton, CA 94566
tel. 925-462-6180

Stanley Junction Senior Apartments, a 86-unit apartment complex for seniors aged 62 and older, was completed and occupied in 1997. This rental development, located at 4031 Stanley Boulevard in Pleasanton, was built by a private developer, Red Bear, Inc.

The 86 apartments are all one-bedroom units with a size of approximately 625 square feet. Forty-eight of the apartments are first-floor units, while the remaining apartments are second-floor units that are accessible by elevator. Pets are allowed subject to the pet guidelines for the complex. Four laundry rooms are conveniently located throughout the complex.

The Stanley Junction Senior Apartments are offered at a range of below-market rents (currently in the range of approximately $800 to $1000) that are made possible through an agreement between the owner/developer and the City of Pleasanton. [Comparatively, the average market rent for a typical one-bedroom apartment is approximately $1,100 to $1,300, based on a recent survey of apartments in Pleasanton.] Rents for the apartments are established at three basic levels according to the household income of the resident(s):

Rent Level (Percent of Median Income)	Number of Apartments	Maximum Income * (Household Size)		Maximum Monthly Rent *
		One Person	Two Persons
1) 80%	43	$50,550	$57,800	$1,445
2) 60%	35	$37,950	$43,350	$1,084
3) 50%	8	$31,600	$36,100	$903

* Income and rent limits are effective May 2010. According to the City-Developer agreement, rents may be increased once each year at the same rate as the annual increase in the median income level for the Alameda-Contra Costa county area. Please contact the leasing office directly to confirm current rent levels.

Information on leasing and current rent levels may be obtained by contacting the leasing office at 925-462-6180, or by calling Deer Ridge Property Management at 925-484-3833.

RIDGE VIEW COMMONS

5200 Case Avenue
Pleasanton, CA 94566
tel. 925-484-5131

Ridge View Commons is a 200-unit rental housing complex for "independent living," low- and very-low-income seniors aged 62 and older. The project was jointly developed by Eden Housing and the City of Pleasanton and is owned by a nonprofit corporation. Financing to construct the development came from state Low Income Housing Tax Credits, a federal HODAG grant, and City contributions of land, fee waivers, and related financial assistance.

The 200-unit complex, located at 5200 Case Avenue in Pleasanton, was completed and occupied in 1989. The project includes 160 apartments in two centrally-located three-story buildings which are served by elevators. Surrounding the two apartment buildings are 40 one-story attached cottages located in four separate clusters. There are a total of 180 one-bedroom units and 20 two-bedroom units in the complex. Units range in size from approximately 660 sq. ft. to 900 sq. ft.

The property is pleasantly landscaped with many large trees and is located immediately adjacent to the Pleasanton Senior Center (the center for a variety of City-sponsored programs and activities for seniors) and Centennial Park, a public park facility. At the center of the complex lies the community building complex which houses the office, kitchen, dining room, beauty salon, community rooms, and other common facilities. The City contracts with Barcelon Associates to provide property management services at Ridge View Commons. An optional reduced cost meal is currently available every weekday evening in the Ridge View Commons dining room.

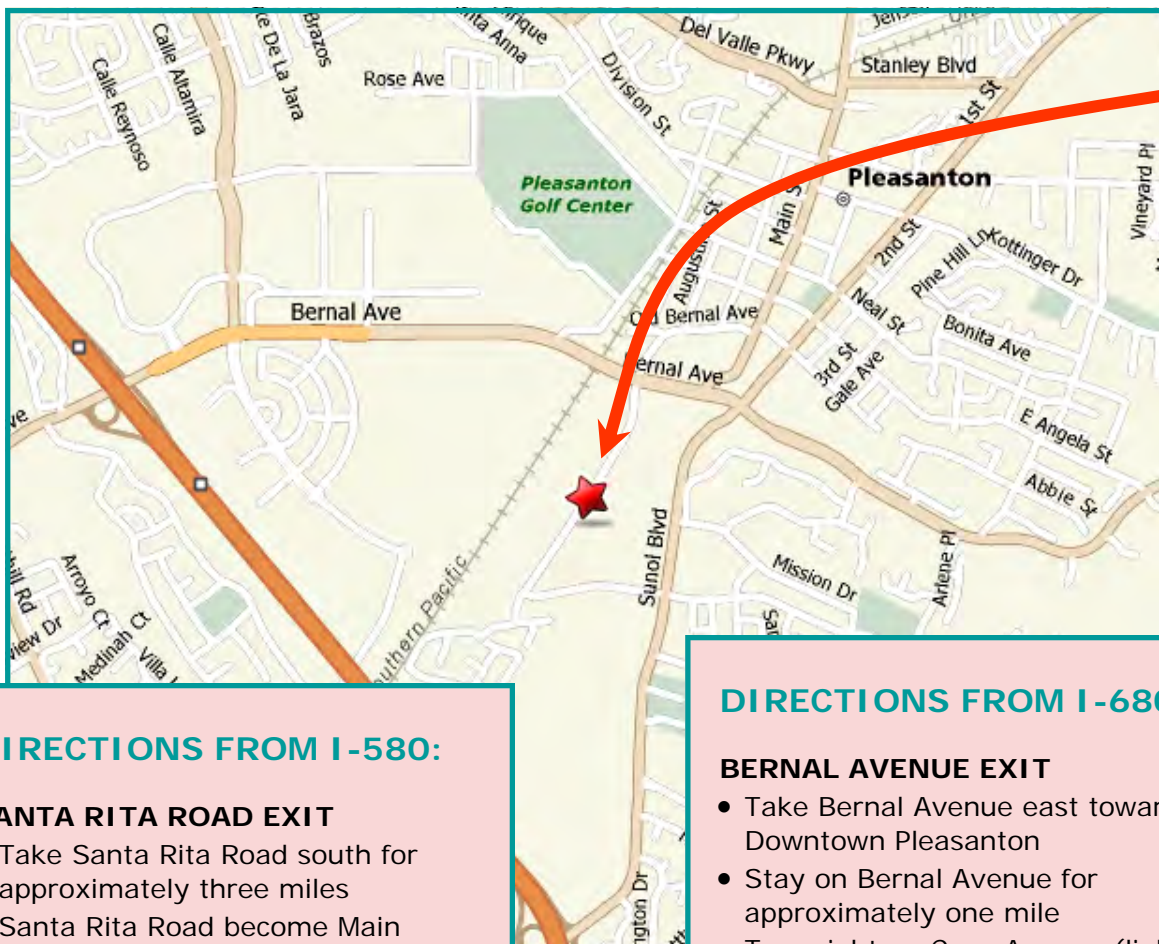

There are four different rent levels at Ridge View Commons. Rents are targeted at levels considered affordable to seniors at 25%, 33%, 50%, and 60% of the Area Median Income (AMI). Currently, rents range from $321 to $840 for one-bedroom apartments and from $364 to $960 for two-bedroom apartments. Most opportunities for new residents are at the highest rent level. The maximum annual income for these units is approximately $37,950 for one person and $43,350 for two persons, and residents must also have a sufficient minimum income in order to be able to pay rent. Rent and income limits are adjusted annually by the California Housing Finance Agency (CalHFA) based on updated information on the AMI.

Because of Ridge View Commons' favorable rents in an environment of high local housing costs, there is always a high level of interest among prospective renters. The waiting list may vary from several months to several years depending upon the rent level. Information on the availability of applications may be obtained directly from the on-site leasing office. Priority is given to Pleasanton residents, and current Ridge View Commons residents have priority for rents in the lowest categories.

Further information on Ridge View Commons may be obtained by calling the rental office directly at 925-484-5131.

Senior Housing Locator Services

The attached brochures are from several privately run services which provide assistance in locating housing and/or care facilities for senior citizens. The City of Pleasanton is not affiliated in any way with these services. However, the brochures are included in this packet in order to provide additional resources to persons seeking information on senior housing and/or senior care facilities.

How We Operate

For Families Companion Care Facility Types Resources For Fa

The California Registry has been providing senior housing and health care information and referrals since 1939. It is a DBA of the American Information and Referral Services Corporation (AIRS™), a for profit California corporation established in 1984 .Our agency provides referrals throughout Los Angeles County, Orange County, parts of Riverside and San Bernardino Counties, the San Francisco Bay area, Santa Barbara County, Sacramento County and Ventura county. Our offices are located in Orange County.

Although the services we provide are free to our individual clients, being a for profit corporation, the California Registry generates its income by charging a referral fee to the facility where a successful placement has been made. This is the same practice as followed by other senior care referral agencies within the state.

Our contract with facilities specifically states that the facilities are not to discriminate against our clients by charging additional fees or surcharges over and above the customary rates because they used our service. We STRONGLY urge any client to notify us if they are asked to pay such a fee.

Referrals we are not able to provide at this time:

- Skilled Nursing Facilities (aka Nursing Homes)
- Adult Housing (ages 18-59)
- Apartments
- HUD Housing
- Section 8 Housing
- other low income housing

What to Look For When Choosing a Care Facility For an Elderly Person

For Families

Companion Care

Facility Types

For Facilities

Don't choose a home for today's care needs. Too often people choose a facility for an elderly person based on their care needs today. Choose a care facility that is going to meet your needs tomorrow, six months, a year, two years down the line. If your relative or friend is going to need more help - not less - as time goes on make sure that the home you choose has the services they are going to need.

Make an appointment for your first visit.

If you think you might choose that facility, plan on dropping in unannounced at least twice thereafter. The best times are around mealtimes so that you can observe how meal service is provided.

Speak with some of the residents without staff present.

Ask them how they like being there. Try to get a feeling about whether your relative would fit in and be comfortable with the type of residents living in that facility . Are they experiencing similar problems and care needs?

Do NOT be Distracted by a Perfect Looking Home.

Although a residential care home or nursing home should be neat, clean, orderly and not have any offensive odors, ultimately you are looking for GOOD CARE, not perfect decor. At California Registry, we often visit homes that are exceedingly well decorated but have managers and owners that have little or no experience in caring for elderly people

Observe how residents and staff interact with each other.

Do the residents seem withdrawn and silent? Do they seem depressed and off in a world of their own? Do the staff treat residents as adults or more like children? If so, this may indicate that a facility is understaffed or that they don't understand the psycho-social needs of their residents. To a large extent the way the staff treat the residents will more than anything else determine the quality of life that a resident experiences in a facility. Competent, caring staff that respect the personal dignity of each resident is essential.

Read the rental contract or patient agreement carefully.

Take it home with you if necessary. What extra charges are there? What items are not covered in the care contract? If these are not listed ask the facility to list what is not covered and what it will cost for those extra services. Never choose a facility that will not specify basic rates and extras in writing for you. Another important thing to check is how much notice you contractually must give a facility if you must move your relative out of a facility either due to medical reasons or if you are not satisfied with the facility.

Observe and sample meals

Food is often one of the few pleasures that elderly people can enjoy on a daily basis. If the food is bland and tasteless or lacking in variety the quality of life of an elderly person is seriously impacted in our opinion. We think that food is very important in the choice of any facility, be it retirement community or nursing home.

Usually it is not possible to sample the food prepared in small homes, but in the larger facilities such as retirement residences, assisted living facilities and nursing homes you may be invited to eat with the residents. If you are not, ask if you may eat a meal with the residents. Observe how the meals are served to the residents. Are the servers courteous and friendly. Is the food served hot? Is the food easily managed by an elderly person (e.g. can they easily cut it up and chew it?) Is there a variety of drinks available? How many choices do the residents have at each meal? Are there adequate amounts of each item? Are there a variety of fruits and fresh vegetables available? Are their desserts tasty and attractive?

Ask to see the latest state licensing inspection survey

Every facility is visited at least annually whether it is a residential care home, assisted living facility or nursing home. In the case of nursing homes, the annual survey is supposed to be placed in a public area of the lobby or entrance to the nursing home. If you don't see it, merely ask someone at the front desk for a copy of it or where it is located. Every nursing home will have some violations - but what you don't want to see in the survey are documented observations of poor or negligent patient care. Many of the deficiencies can be for things that seem simple or even trivial, but the sheer number of deficiencies may indicate a facility with real problems. A nursing home survey that is ten pages or less and has no significant deficiencies in direct patient care may be a good facility. One that 20-40 pages of deficiencies and lots of patient care deficiencies is a facility that you may want to avoid.

Ask to speak to the Director of Nurses

Every nursing home will have a D.O.N. (Director of Nurses). In speaking to the D.O.N. try to ascertain his or her philosophy of care and how long that person has been in that position. The D.O.N. sets the standards for care in a facility. If that person is good at their job and is supported by management (i.e. the Administrator) then care generally is good. Where there is turnover you are likely to see a facility that has real problems in caring for its patients.

What happens if the money runs out?

Find out what the facility's policy is if the patient's money runs out and they can no longer pay for private care. Nursing homes generally have Medi-Cal contracts with the state which provides for the care of patients who have exhausted their funds for care. However, no such provision exists for licensed residential care homes or assisted living facilities. They can not bill Medi-Cal for the cost of care. Your only recourse in that situation is to transfer the person to a nursing home under the Medi-Cal program.

Is it better to place a person into a nursing home rather than a residential care setting because their money will run out? At California Registry we suggest that if a person's funds will run out in less than six months it usually is better to place that person in a nursing home rather than a residential care home. The reason's are practical. First, an elderly person finds it terribly upsetting to be moved and the fewer moves the better, both physically and mentally for them. Secondly, the care home will just be getting the person adjusted to the routine of the home and they will have to be moved. It is inconvenient for the home and the family to have to undergo two moves in a short time.

If there are funds, however, that allow the person to be housed for six months or longer in a residential care setting vs. a nursing home we usually advise the family to opt for the residential care setting or assisted living facility even though it may involve a move within a year. We believe that the quality of life is so much better in those settings over a nursing home that it should always be considered whenever possible.

In the final analysis there is no perfect solution, only some that seem better than others. But your knowledge of the system will help guide you to a decision that is best for your yourself or your relative.

SHALL I HIRE THIS WORKER?

Trust your feelings! Making the right choice is not always easy.

- Remember to ask all the questions you want. If in doubt about anything, continue to ask more questions of the worker, the social service worker or the person who told you about the worker.
- Remember to write down things. If anything the worker said sounded odd to you, you can check it out with your social service worker. Remember to write it down so you do not forget.
- Remember, you can interview as many people as you wish. You do not have to hire the first person you interview.
- Remember, you can always change your mind—now or later.
- Remember, YOU should pick the worker who takes care of YOU.
- Remember to call your social service worker immediately, once you hire a worker. If you fire a worker, do the same.

POINTS TO REMEMBER ONCE YOU HAVE HIRED YOUR WORKER

- It is not okay to be treated badly! Do not let your worker mistreat you.
- If your worker is not doing his or her job, call your social service worker.
- If your worker is frequently late, leaves early, or does not report to work, call your social service worker immediately.
- If your worker is hitting you, hurting you, screaming and yelling at you, or treating you badly in any way, call your social service worker immediately.

DOs AND DON'Ts

- DO ask for a receipt any time your worker shops for you.
- DO call your adult protective services agency or police department if you feel you are in danger.
- DO NOT talk about how much money you have with the worker. DO NOT talk about your valuable property items and cash.
- DO NOT let your worker sign YOUR name on their timesheet.
- DO NOT sign your worker's time sheet if you know they have not worked those hours. Call your social service worker.
- DO NOT add your worker's name to your savings, checking, charge accounts, or any other documents.
- DO NOT add your worker's name to your SSL, pension, Social Security or any other check.

How To Hire and Supervise Your In-Home Supportive Services (IHSS) Provider

A Guide FOR Clients

State Social Services Advisory Board
 Committee on Welfare and Social Services

This brochure is intended to provide some guidelines for hiring and supervising your In-Home Supportive Services worker or provider.

Answers To Your Questions

The following are some of the services that may be available to you through the In-Home Supportive Services Program:

- Household and heavy cleaning, meal preparation, laundry, reasonable shopping and errands.
- Personal care services, such as feeding, bathing, bowel and bladder care, dressing, and other services.
- Assistance with transportation for medical appointments and health related services.

Please check your NOTICE OF ACTION for a complete list of services authorized for you.

The In-Home Supportive Services (IHSS) Program provides assistance to eligible aged, blind, and disabled persons who are unable to remain safely in their own homes without assistance. While your social service worker has the responsibility to assist you in looking for a worker to help, you should make the final choice on who to hire and when to terminate services. The following suggestions can assist you in carefully choosing your worker.

WHO ARE YOU HIRING?

It is important that you talk to the worker in person before deciding to hire him or her. You might want to consider the following:

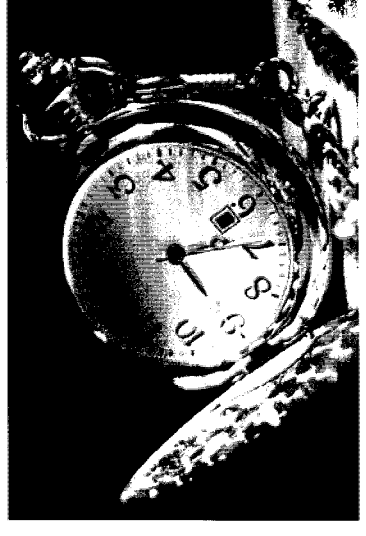

- Have a friend or relative sit in on the interview.
- You may ask to see an identification card with a picture of the worker on it. A driver's license, a Department of Motor Vehicles ID card, an Alien Registration card, or a County Employment ID card are all examples of such cards.
- Write down the worker's name, birth date, and Social Security account number. Keep this information in a place where you can easily find it. Write down their address and their telephone number. Your social service worker will need this information if you hire this person.
- Find out where they live and where and when they last worked. Ask for references from people they have worked for. You may call and ask what kind of work they performed and if there were any problems with the worker.
- Ask if the worker lives in the area and how long they have lived there. This will give you an idea of whether the worker is familiar with the local facilities or if the worker needs a lot of help from you to learn the area. Ask a new worker why he or she moved to this locality.
- Ask if the worker uses alcohol, tobacco, or drugs.
- Look at the worker's appearance. Is the worker neat and clean? If this worker will be cooking meals for you, take a good look at the worker's hands and fingernails and make sure they are clean.

CAN THE WORKER DO THE JOB?

It is not easy to show a worker how to do things all the time, especially when you do not have the energy to explain what it is that has to be done.

The following questions or observations may be noted before you hire — get the following information from the worker during your talk:

- Previous work—Has the worker done this kind of job before?
- Knowledge of job duties—Does the worker know what the job is about? Has the worker attended any job training? Ask direct questions about doing the job. Talk to the worker about what jobs you need done, such as cooking, laundry, cleaning, bathing, and shopping. If you need transportation, be sure to see that the worker has a valid driver's license and insurance policy.
- Good health—Make sure the worker does not have physical problems that would keep the worker from taking good care of you.
- Working hours—What hours is the worker able to care for you? Does the worker have any other part-time jobs?

Rental Assistance Programs

Programs which offer direct financial assistance to households for the payment of monthly rental costs are highly competitive in the Bay Area and the amount of assistance available is limited.

The primary form of rental assistance is the Section 8 program. Section 8 is a federally-funded program in which the government pays a portion of the monthly rent for households which meet certain eligibility requirements (e.g., income). Section 8 refers to the section of the United States Housing Act which authorizes and provides federal funding for housing assistance programs.

In Pleasanton (as well as in Dublin), the Section 8 program is administered by the Housing Authority of the County of Alameda (HACA) which is based in Hayward. The HACA currently receives funding to subsidize rents for approximately 4,000 households in the portions of Alameda County served by the agency through the “Housing Choice Voucher Program.” Under the program, the tenant pays 30% to 40% of the gross adjusted monthly household income for rent, while the balance is subsidized up to a maximum set by the government.

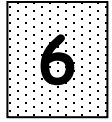

Information on the Section 8 program can be obtained from the Housing Authority of the County of Alameda, 22941 Atherton St., Hayward, CA 94541 (tel. 510-538-8876; www.haca.net). In Livermore, the Section 8 program is coordinated through the Livermore Housing Authority (tel. 925-447-3600).

ECHO Housing, a Bay Area nonprofit agency, also provides a limited Rental Assistance Program (RAP). The program provides assistance with move-in costs or helps residents with delinquent rent due to a temporary financial setback. ECHO helps by arranging a guaranteed repayment contract between the tenant and the landlord. Financial assistance is subject to the availability of funds. Information on this program can be obtained from ECHO Housing, 3311 Pacific Ave., Livermore, CA 94550 (tel. 925-449-7340; www.echofairhousing.org).

NOTES:

It is illegal for any housing provider to discriminate on the basis of age, sex, race, physical handicap, marital status, sexual preference, or religion. If you have been unlawfully discriminated against, or you have questions about your rights, contact ECHO Housing at 510-581-9380 or 925-449-7340.

Senior Community

Resource Guide

Compliments of Assemblymember Mary Hayashi

Mary Hayashi

Chair, Assembly Committee on Business, Professions and Consumer Protection

Dear Neighbor:

Please accept this complimentary copy of my Senior Community Resource Guide. It provides hundreds of useful telephone numbers important to seniors. The listings include federal, state, and local community services and non-profit organizations located in Alameda County.

I encourage you to contact my district office at (510) 583-8818 if you have any questions, need assistance with a state agency, or want more information about a particular issue. Please visit my official website at www.asm.ca.gov/hayashi to retrieve information about legislation, sign-up for my electronic news briefings, or discover more than 150 helpful links on a wide variety of state issues. In particular, the State Resources page on my website includes information on how to find lower rates on your automobile insurance, save on prescription drugs, receive financial automobile repair assistance if your car fails a smog check, tips to prevent identity theft, and what you should know before hiring a home contractor, just to name a few.

I hope you find the information within this senior resource guide helpful. It is an honor and privilege to represent you in the State Legislature. Please feel free to contact me if I can be of further service.

Sincerely,

MARY HAYASHI
Assemblymember
